What's Included: Except for Own-Boat Tuition, all course fees include RYA materials, lunch and refreshments for classroom theory courses. Onboard breakfasts (cold), lunches, dinners and refreshments (no alcohol) are provided for practical courses, with the exception of up to three land-based dinners. Those dinners occur if/when the sailing itinerary includes stopping at restaurant jetties that require those on-board to purchase a meal. In those instances, each student can select the menu items of their choice and the meal will be at their expense. Mooring and other local fees, fuel and gas are included.

Own-Boat Tuition: Own-boat courses are offered for boat owners. Multiple students, up to five, can be instructed, providing they are immediate family and close friends of the boat owner. The boat will need to be seaworthy and carry suitable safety equipment. We will inspect the vessel before the tuition begins and may insist that additional equipment be supplied (by the owner) in order to ensure the safety of the vessel and crew. The owner remains responsible for the craft throughout the course and for insuring the craft for the tuition. All costs for mooring, fuel, are transit log fees are the responsibility of the owner. Provisioning and onboard meals, including for the Instructor and any crew, are supplied by the owner and at his/her expense. The Instructor and any crew will also require their own cabin for the duration of the tuition, if overnight.

RYA Certificates: SunSea Yachting has high standards of instruction and applies RYA guidelines on the issue of certificates. Certificates will not be issued if, in the opinion of the instructor, the student has not reached the necessary standard. The Chief Instructor's decision is final.

Complaints: If you have any issues then you must inform the relevant staff immediately and unless absolutely impossible, our staff will deal with any issues there and then. If an issue persists, submit your complaint in writing to the Chief Instructor, who will investigate as quickly and objectively as possible, taking any appropriate action and responding back to you in writing.

Beyond the above, you may make a complaint to the RYA. In the case that the complaint is received by the RYA, they will notify us and ask to comment on the points raised and we shall fully co-operate in an investigation.
